WHEREAS, on September 20, 2012, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class Action Complaint (the "Amended Complaint") seeking damages and equitable relief under California state law;

WHEREAS, on October 31, 2012 Philips filed a motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint and, on December 7, 2012, following briefing, the Court ruled on the motion, granting and denying it in part;

WHEREAS, Philips has denied and continues to deny Plaintiff's allegations and claims in the Amended Complaint, including those related to whether class treatment is appropriate, and has denied any wrongdoing or liability to Plaintiff;

WHEREAS, in reaching the Agreement, the Parties have engaged in arm's-length negotiations, including their participation in an Early Neutral Evaluation Conference with the Honorable Bernard G. Skomal on April 10, 2013;

WHEREAS, Plaintiff believes that the claims asserted in the Action have substantial merit; however, taking into account the extensive burdens and expense of litigation, including the risks and uncertainties associated with protracted trials and appeals, as well as the fair, cost-effective and assured method of resolving the claims of the Settlement Class, Plaintiff's Counsel have concluded that the Settlement Stipulation provides substantial benefits to the Settlement Class, and is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of Plaintiff and the Settlement Class;

WHEREAS, although Philips denies wrongdoing of any kind and Plaintiff's allegations in the Amended Complaint, and believes that the Action is without merit, Philips also has taken into account the uncertainty, risk, delay and costs inherent in litigation and agreed to enter into the Agreement to avoid any further litigation expenses and inconvenience, and to remove the distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation;

WHEREAS, it is the intention and desire of the Plaintiff and Philips to compromise, resolve, dismiss and release all allegations and claims for damages or equitable relief relating to the marketing, design and sale of AirFloss as set forth in the Amended Complaint and that have been or could have been brought by the Settlement Class Members against Philips in the Action;

WHEREAS, the Parties have agreed that an appropriate resolution of this controversy is accomplished through the benefits, releases and orders set forth in or attached to the Settlement Stipulation, and intend that the Settlement resolves all claims and disputes arising out of, or relating to, the marketing, design and sale of AirFloss on the terms set forth in the Settlement Stipulation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Settlement Stipulation is entered into by and among the Parties, by and through their respective counsel and representatives, and the Parties agree that: (a) upon approval of the Court after the hearing(s) provided for in the Settlement Stipulation, the claims of the Settlement Class in the Action shall be settled and compromised as between Plaintiff and the Settlement Class, and Philips; and (b) upon Court approval of the Agreement, the [Proposed] Final Judgment and [Proposed] Order Approving Settlement, substantially in the

b. Time is of the essence.

c. Subject to Court approval, the Parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Agreement. Nothing in this Settlement Stipulation, or any other understanding, shall require such agreement.

d. The determination of the terms of, and the drafting of, the Agreement has been by mutual understanding after negotiation, with consideration by, and participation of, the Parties hereto and their counsel.

e. The waiver by one Party of any provision or breach of the Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any other provision or breach of the Agreement.

f. In the event of any variance between the terms of this Settlement Stipulation and any of the Exhibits hereto, the terms of this Settlement Stipulation shall control and supersede the Exhibit(s), except if such Exhibit shall become an entered order, in which case the Parties shall petition the Court for an amendment of such entered order to ensure that the terms of this Settlement Stipulation shall control.

The Class Notice will direct Settlement Class Members to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the Settlement and any tax reporting obligations with respect thereto. Each Settlement Class Member is responsible for his/her tax reporting and other obligations respecting the Settlement, if any.

i. It is expressly understood that, to the extent a Released Party is not a Party to the Settlement Stipulation, all such Released Parties are intended third party beneficiaries of the Settlement Stipulation.

N. TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

1. In the event that:

a. By October 30, 2013, the Court does not enter an order granting Preliminary Approval Order conforming in all material respects to Section C.1 herein and Exhibit 1 hereof;

b. The Court does not conditionally and finally certify the Settlement Class as defined herein or the Court's order certifying the Settlement Class is reversed, vacated, or modified in any respect by another court;

c. The Court does not enter a Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement conforming in all material respects to Section J herein and Exhibit 2, or if entered, such Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement is reversed, vacated, or modified in any material respect by another court; then either of the Parties may terminate this Agreement within ten (10) business days of the event giving rise to the right to terminate by serving written notice upon the other Party and Court.

2. In the event of a termination under Sections N.1.b. or N.1.c. herein, Philips shall cause the Claims Administrator to post information regarding the termination on the Settlement Website established for the Settlement and to e-mail such information to those Settlement Class Members who provided an e-mail address to the Claims Administrator. It is expressly agreed that neither the failure of the Court to award Attorneys' Fees and Expenses to Class Counsel or Incentive Award to Plaintiff, nor the amount of such Attorney's Fees and Expenses or Incentive Awards that may be finally determined and awarded, shall provide a basis for termination of this Agreement.

3. In the event that more than a certain confidential number of Settlement Class Members as specified in that separate and confidential side-letter dated May 20, 2013, shall file valid Opt-Outs, then Philips, in its discretion, shall have the ability to terminate this Settlement Stipulation.

4. In the event of the termination of this Settlement Stipulation, all Parties shall be restored to their respective positions as of immediately prior to the date of execution of this Settlement Stipulation. Upon termination, Sections B and L herein shall survive and be binding on the Parties, but this Settlement Stipulation shall otherwise be null and void.

5. In the event that the Court approves the terms of the Settlement but does not approve (or reserves judgment on) the request for Attorneys' fees, expenses and/or incentive awards, the Settlement and Settlement Consideration may nonetheless be distributed to Class Members without delay.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties hereto has caused the Settlement Stipulation to be executed on its behalf by its duly authorized counsel of record, all as of the day set forth below.
