Why do I feel sick, like a cold or flu, when I use e-cigarettes?

We hear this question from customers every single day. It's a fair question — most folks in our e-cig community are former tobacco users. Quitting tobacco products makes you feel a lot worse before you feel a lot better. It's one of the reasons why so many people need some help quitting.

Quitting tobacco is hard. It's a major lifestyle adjustment, both mentally and physically. Your body does unpleasant things while it adjusts to oxygen again, and that habit of fighting up regularly is so very hard to break.

E-cigarettes do not cause these problems. I wish I could tell you that switching to a cigarette or e-cigarette would eliminate all the unpleasantness, but it will only help you with the nausea. E-cigarettes can help you kick smoking, but do so at your own risk. You'll see improvements after temporary symptoms when you quit.
