Dear MyPillow,

My Physical Therapist recommended this pillow to me because of neck pain, so I bought it. I recently went out of town to a class that lasted several days and took my pillow with me.

I left the pillow in my room thinking my room mate got it. When I got homeno pillow.

I had to wait over a week for them to send it back to me during which my neck pain and headaches returned.

After about 2 weeks without my pillow I was never so happy in my life to see anything as I was the return of my pillow.

I have recommended it to my brother as he has trouble finding the right pillow. We are both in hopes that he likes his as well as I like mine.

Sincerely,
Lanette C.
