It helps prevent arthritis, joint pain and is good for your pets immune system and skin coat too. So, if u or anyone you know,would like more detailed information about these product's, U can research all about it online @ www.Jusuru.com, or feel free to message me anytime with any questions or concern's u might have. It also comes in soft chewable square's which make's it easier to give to ur pet's. And,"No! This product does not taste like medicine"! So, parent's don't worry you should'nt have any trouble with ur kid's not wanting to take this product. It taste's like a bunch of all sorts of different fruit combined in one bottle.
