Melody fell down on a trip recently. Acting by instinct, the first thing I do is dab some Jeunesse Reserve on her bloody wound, the blood stop flowing but the swell made her lips look like an eagle's beak. I keep giving her Reserve and she heals very fast. Thank the Lord.. I thank the day I learn about Jeunesse, it has been a saviour product for more than once. Melody has always have difficulty healing her wound (just like her mom) this kind of wound will usually take weeks for her, Jeunesse speed up the healing in just 3 days. And I myself is very prone to small cuts and accidents, noticed that even my own wounds heal faster too 😊
