Someone asked this very important question and lots of people are sceptical about taking Xango when pregnant. Below is what you will be missing out on.

Some comments from Xango Distributors.

Hi friends would you give a pregnant woman xango to fight a cold?

Samantha B. Xgo
Yes and a Million times yes. I would have her continue to drink the juice all through her pregnancy! Best time to benefit two people in one!!! plus studies show that pregnant women benefit in several ways: the juice prevents preeclampsia, strengthens the placenta, the baby is healthier and the recovery time after giving birth cuts in half.

Also, inflammation (in the mother) during pregnancy has been linked to Autism and we know how amazing the juice is to help control inflammation.
