XanGo juice helps diabetes!.

November is diabetes awareness month. No, it isn't pink or sexy. No it doesnt involve boobs or football players or cute t-shirts or catch phrases. It's about being grateful that you or your loved one wakes up in the morning. Its about the 3AM bloodsugar checks, the low blood sugars, the needles. It's the smell of insulin on your hands after changing a pump site or filling a syringe. It's the depressing feeling that you're a pin cushion. That's the diabetic LIFE. People live it every day. Repost if you know, are, or love a diabetic.<3
