Thanks to everyone who has been a friend for the time that I have been sick from arthritis I had to go through a lot of serious pain and suffering there was times when I had doubt that I would get better but my belief in the mannatech products and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ bought me through and now the company gave us another product called Manna Boom as usual it's a winner and it has put the finishing touches to clear up the last of the poor health problems and life is back together thanks to God and his nutritional supplements company as usual the new product is second to none there is nothing more important than your health with out good health you have nothing Amen
