1 Plaintiffs Veda Woodard, Teresa Rizzo-Marino, and Diane Morrison
2 (“Plaintiffs”) and Defendants Dr. Mehmet C. Oz, M.D., Zoco Productions, LLC, 3 Harpo Productions, Inc. and Entertainment Media Ventures, Inc. (the “Media 4 Defendants”) (collectively the “Settling Parties”) respectfully submit this 5 Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of their Joint Motion for 6 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement and state as follows:

7 I. INTRODUCTION

8 After hard-fought litigation with multiple rounds of written discovery, 9 depositions, third-party discovery, extensive motion practice, and three full days of 10 mediation, Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants reached this proposed Settlement.
11 The Settlement Agreement establishes both monetary and non-monetary relief and 12 requires the Media Defendants to pay $5,250,000 into a settlement fund.¹ If 13 approved, the Settlement will bring an end to what has been, and likely would 14 continue to be, highly contentious and costly litigation centered upon unsettled 15 legal questions.

16 Therefore, this joint motion seeks the entry of an order providing for, among 17 other things:

- 18 1. Preliminary Approval of the Settlement:
- 19 2. Preliminary certification of a Settlement Class and appointment of the 20 Plaintiffs as Class Representatives and Plaintiffs’ counsel as Class Counsel;
- 21 3. Approval of the Settlement Administrator, Notice Administrator, and 22 Escrow Agent;
- 23 4. Approval of the Notice program describing:
 - 24 a. The Settlement and the Settlement Class members’ rights with respect 25 to the Settlement;

27 ¹ A copy of the Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is attached to the 28 concurrently-filed Declaration of Ronald A. Marron in Support of the Settling Parties’ Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval (“Marron Decl.”) as Exhibit 1.

- 1 b. The proposed release of claims;
- 2 c. Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees and expenses, as well as a
- 3 Service Award for the Class Representatives; and
- 4 d. The procedure for opting-out of or objecting to the Settlement;
- 5 5. Approval of the Claims process; and
- 6 6. The scheduling of a Final Approval Hearing to consider Final Approval of
- 7 the Settlement.

8 The Settling Parties’ proposed Settlement is exceedingly fair, and well 9 within the range of preliminary approval for several reasons. First, it provides 10 relief for Settlement Class Members where their recovery, if any, would otherwise 11 be uncertain, especially given the Media Defendants’ ability and willingness to 12 continue their vigorous defense of the case. Second, the Settlement was reached 13 only after first engaging in substantial discovery, motion practice, and extensive 14 arm’s-length negotiations, including a three full days of mediation before a neutral 15 mediator. Third, the Settlement was not conditioned on any amount of attorneys’ 16 fees for Class Counsel or Service Awards for Plaintiffs, which speaks to the 17 fundamental fairness of the process. For all of these reasons, and as further 18 described below, Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants respectfully request that the 19 Court preliminarily approve the Settlement.

20 II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

21 Plaintiffs and putative class members allegedly purchased Labrada Garcinia
22 Cambogia DUAL ACTION FAT BUSTER and Labrada Green Coffee Bean
23 Extract FAT LOSS OPTIMIZER (together, the “Products”) on multiple occasions.
24 (Dkt. No. 88 at 5-6). Plaintiffs claim to have purchased the products after 25 watching episodes² of The Dr. Oz Show that referenced garcinia cambogia and 26

27 ² Episode 3-143 aired on April 26, 2012 (Green Coffee Bean I); Episode 4-018 aired on 28 September 10, 2012 (Green Coffee Bean II); and Episode 4-052 aired on October 29, 2012 (Garcinia Cambogia I).

1 green coffee bean extract (“Complained of Broadcasts”) and/or reading a fact sheet
2 posted on Doctoroz.com on April 26, 2012 regarding green coffee bean extract
3 (“GCBE Post”). (Dkt. No. 88 at 16-18, 40-49).

4 The operative First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) asserts that the Media 5 Defendants made misrepresentations regarding the quality, effectiveness, and 6 sponsorship of these weight-loss supplements. (Dkt. No. 88 at 12-15).
7 Specifically, Plaintiffs allege that the Complained of Broadcasts and GCBE Post 8 fraudulently promoted the weight loss benefits of the Products, misrepresented Dr.
9 Oz’s affiliation with products he endorses, and failed to disclose those affiliations 10 to viewers of The Dr. Oz Show. (Dkt. No. 88 at 12-13). Plaintiffs further allege Dr.
11 Oz was paid by co-defendants Labrada,³ Interhealth,⁴ and/or Naturex⁵ in exchange 12 for promoting green coffee bean extract and garcinia cambogia on The Dr. Oz 13 Show. (Dkt. No. 88 at 12-13).

14 This action was originally filed by Plaintiff Veda Woodard on February 2, 15 2016. (Dkt. No. 1). On April 4, 2016, the Media Defendants filed a Motion to 16 Dismiss Plaintiff Woodard’s class action complaint (Dkt. No. 45) and on April 11, 17 2016 the Media Defendants filed a Special Motion to Strike Plaintiff Woodard’s 18 Class Action Complaint pursuant to California Civil Procedure Code section 19 425.16 (California’s “anti-SLAPP law”). (Dkt. No. 49). On April 18, 2016, 20 Plaintiff Woodard filed a Motion to Defer Ruling on the Media Defendants’ 21 Special Motion to Strike and for Leave to Conduct Discovery Pursuant to Federal 22 Rule of Civil Procedure 56(d). (Dkt. No. 60). On May 12, 2016, the Court entered 23 an Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part the Media Defendants’ Motion to 24 Dismiss with Leave to Amend and Granting Plaintiff Woodard’s Motion to Defer

27 ³ “Labrada” collectively refers to Defendants Lee Labrada, Labrada Bodybuilding Nutrition, 28 Inc., and Labrada Nutritional Systems, Inc.

⁴ “Interhealth” refers to Defendant Interhealth Nutricueticals, Inc.

⁵ “Naturex” refers to Defendant Naturex, Inc.

1 Ruling on the Media Defendants’ Special Motion to Strike and for Leave to 2 Conduct Discovery. (Dkt. No. 85).

3 On June 2, 2016, Plaintiffs Veda Woodard Teresa Rizzo-Marino, and Diane 4 Morrison (collectively the “Plaintiffs”) filed the operative FAC alleging violations
5 of consumer protection laws. (Dkt. No. 88). On June 24, 2016, the Media 6 Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint. (Dkt.
7 No. 94). On March 10, 2017, the Court issued an Order Granting in Part and 8 Denying in Part the Media Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss the FAC and dismissed 9 Defendant Sony Pictures Television, Inc. from the action with prejudice. (Dkt. No.
10 154).

11 Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants have engaged in substantial discovery.
12 The parties in this litigation have produced approximately 30,000 pages of 13 documents. See Marron Decl., ¶ 3; Declaration of Timothy D. Cohelan in Support 14 of Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval (“Cohelan Decl.”), ¶ 11. Many of these 15 documents were produced after the Court’s rulings on Plaintiffs’ Motion to 16 Compel the Media Defendants’ discovery responses. (Dkt. Nos. 147 & 177). The 17 Parties have also taken several depositions in this action and all three of the named 18 Plaintiffs have been deposed. Marron Decl., ¶¶ 5-10; Cohelan Decl., ¶ 12.
19 Plaintiffs have also taken the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of Defendant Zoco 20 Productions, LLC as well as the depositions of the executive producers of The Dr.
21 Oz Show and other witnesses as fully detailed below. Marron Decl., ¶¶ 5-8; 22 Cohelan Decl., ¶ 12-13.

23 On September 26, 2017, all the Parties herein engaged in confidential, 24 extensive, arm’s-length negotiation and mediation with the Hon. Leo Papas (Ret.).
25 Marron Decl., ¶ 12. Judge Papas is a retired Magistrate Judge of the United States 26 District Court for the Southern District of California and an experienced and highly 27 regarded mediator who served as a Magistrate Judge for the U.S. District Court, 28 Southern District of California from 1991 to 2009, including a tenure as the

1 Presiding Judge from 2002 to 2007. Marron Decl., ¶ 12 & Ex. 2. The Parties were 2 unable to reach a resolution at the mediation. Marron Decl., ¶ 12.

3 Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants engaged in two additional mediations 4 with Judge Papas on December 13, 2017 and February 15, 2018. Marron Decl., ¶ 13.
5 Between the second and third mediation sessions, Judge Papas held several private 6 telephone caucuses with respective counsel. During the February 15 mediation, with 7 Judge Papas' guidance, Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants reached a settlement 8 which was reduced to a written memorandum of understanding ("MOU"). Marron 9 Decl., ¶ 13. The MOU was superseded by a written Joint Stipulation of Settlement 10 executed by Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants. Marron Decl., ¶ 13 & Ex. 1. The 11 mediator's continued involvement over several months to work out significant 12 details and vigorous disagreements between the parties demonstrate that this 13 proposed resolution was the product of heavily disputed and arm's length 14 negotiation. Marron Decl., ¶¶ 13-14.

15 III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

16 The following is a summary of the material terms of the proposed Settlement.

17 A. The Settlement Class

18 The proposed Settlement establishes a Settlement Class comprised of:

19 All persons in the United States who purchased (A) any Green Coffee 20 Bean Extract and/or Garcinia Cambogia product from any 21 manufacturer, including but not limited to the Labrada Dual Action
22 Fat Buster with Supercitrimax® Garcinia Cambogia and the Labrada 23 Fat Loss Optimizer with Svetol® Green Coffee Bean Extract, from 24 February 2, 2012 until the date notice is disseminated in this action, 25 and saw any fake ad purported to be sourced from or approved by Dr.
26 Oz or Media Defendants; or (B) any weight loss product, ingredient, 27 and/or plant after viewing, at any time, any portion of Episode 3-143, 28 Episode 4-018, or Episode 4-052 of The Dr. Oz Show, or viewing, at any time, any portion of DoctorOz.com on or after April 26, 2012 related to Green Coffee Bean Extract and/or Garcinia Cambogia, or after seeing any fake ad purported to be sourced from or approved by Dr. Oz or Media Defendants, even if it resulted in weight loss.

1 Agreement at ¶ 2.1(LL). The settlement class definition is tethered to the legal 2 claims in this action because it includes persons who purchased a garcinia
3 cambogia product or a green coffee bean extract product, including the Labrada
4 Products, after seeing any fake ad purported to be sourced or approved by Dr. Oz 5 or the Media Defendants, even if it resulted in weight loss or after viewing the 6 disputed episodes of the Dr. Oz Show and/or the doctoroz.com website. Agreement 7 at ¶ 2.1(LL). As further discussed below, the class definition is narrowly tailored 8 because the release in the settlement will not preclude Class Members for seeking 9 redress against the suppliers and manufacturers of garcinia cambogia and green 10 coffee bean extract, including the Labrada Defendants, Interhealth, and Naturex.
11 The class definition and the release focuses solely on the conduct of the Media 12 Defendants.

13 B. Settlement Consideration

14 1. Monetary Relief

15 The Settlement Agreement provides that the Media Defendants will pay 16 $5,250,000.00 into a settlement fund. Agreement at ¶ 6.2(3)(a). This fund will be 17 used for, among other things, to pay authorized claims to the Settlement Class 18 Members, to pay the costs of settlement administration and notice to the Class 19 Members, to pay Class Counsel's fees and expenses, and to pay incentive awards 20 to the named Plaintiffs. Agreement at ¶ 6.2(3)(b).

21 For class members who submit a claim with receipts that show a purchase of 22 a Class Product, the class members will receive $30.00 cash for each product 23 purchased. Agreement at ¶ 6.2(1)(a). For class members who submit a claim 24 without a receipt showing a purchase of Class Product, The Media Defendants will 25 provide $30.00 cash for each product purchased, to be paid from the Settlement 26 Fund, with a limit of $90.00 per household. Agreement at ¶ 6.2(1)(b). If the total 27 amount of eligible claims exceeds the Settlement Fund, then each claim will be 28 reduced proportionally. Agreement at ¶ 6.2(1)(d). In the event that there is any

1 remaining cash amount in the Settlement Fund after payment of Notice and Claim 2 Administration Expenses, Attorneys’ Fees, any necessary taxes, tax expenses, and 3 any Court-approved service award to Plaintiffs as well as the tallied amount of all 4 Authorized Claims, the Settlement Administrator shall divide the remaining cash 5 amount equally by the number of Authorized Claimants and shall pay each such 6 Authorized Claimant his or her share of the remaining cash amount. Agreement at 7 ¶ 6.2(1)(d). If after all valid claims (plus other authorized fees, costs and expenses) 8 are paid and money remains in the settlement fund after pro rata distribution to 9 Authorized Claimants, any remaining settlement funds thereafter will be awarded 10 cy pres to the Consumers Union subject to Court approval. Agreement at ¶ 11 6.2(1)(d).

12 2. Non-Monetary Relief

13 Pursuant to the Settlement, the Media Defendants agree not to re-air Episode 14 3-143, Episode 4-018, or Episode 4-052 of The Dr. Oz Show (“Episodes”), and to 15 remove all clips of these Episodes from doctoroz.com. Agreement at ¶ 6.2(2)(a).

16 C. The Notice Program and Settlement Administration

17 Pending this Court’s approval, KCC, LLC will serve as the Notice and 18 Settlement Administrator, and will be responsible for administrating the Notice 19 Program and for paying valid claims to Settlement Class Members. The Notice 20 Program consists of three different components: (1) Online Notice, (2) Print 21 Publication Notice in Glamour magazine, Star Magazine, In Touch Magazine and 22 the Los Angeles Daily News and (3) Long-Form and Short-Form Notices. See 23 Declaration of Carla Peak in Support of Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval 24 (“Peak Decl.”), ¶¶ 12-25. The forms of the proposed Notices, agreed upon by 25 Class Counsel and the Media Defendants, subject to this Court’s approval and/or 26 modification, are attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibits A & D. The 27 Notice Administrator will also establish a settlement website that will be located at 28 www.weightlossclassaction.com. See Peak Decl., ¶¶ 22.

1 The Notice program is designed to provide the Settlement Class with 2 important information regarding the Settlement and their rights thereunder, 3 including a description of the material terms of the Settlement; a date by which 4 Settlement Class members may exclude themselves from or “opt-out” of the 5 Settlement Class; a date by which Settlement Class Members may object to the 6 Settlement, Class Counsel’s fee application and/or the request for a Service Award; 7 the date of the Final Approval Hearing; information regarding the Settlement 8 Website where Settlement Class members may access the Agreement, and other 9 important documents.

10 D. Claims Process

11 The Claims process here is intentionally straightforward, easy to understand 12 for Settlement Class members, and designed so that they can make a claim to their 13 portion of the Settlement Fund without complication. Settlement Class members 14 will make a claim by submitting a valid and timely Claim Form to the Settlement 15 Administrator. A copy of the Claim Form is attached to the Settlement Agreement 16 as Exhibit C. Claim Forms may be sent in by hard copy or submitted electronically 17 on the Settlement Website. The Claim Form requires basic information from 18 Settlement Class members, including: (1) name; (2) current address; (3) 19 identification of the Class Products purchased; (4) location of where the Class 20 Products were purchased from; and (5) a current contact telephone number. Once a 21 Settlement Class member submits a Claim Form and it is reviewed and approved 22 by the Settlement Administrator, the Settlement Class Member will automatically 23 receive a cash payment as discussed above.

24 E. Opt-Out and Objection Procedures

25 Settlement Class members who do not wish to participate in the Settlement 26 may opt-out of the Settlement by sending a written request to the Settlement 27 Administrator at the address designated in the Notice. Settlement Class members 28 who timely opt-out of the Settlement will preserve their rights to individually

1 pursue any claims they may have against the Media Defendants, subject to any 2 defenses that the Media Defendants may have against those claims. The Settlement 3 Agreement details the requirements to properly opt-out of the Settlement Class.
4 Agreement, at ¶ 4.4. A Settlement Class member must opt-out of the Settlement 5 Class by the Objection/Exclusion Deadline. Agreement, at ¶ 4.4.

6 Settlement Class Members who wish to file an objection to the Settlement 7 likewise must do so no later than 30 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing.
8 Agreement ¶ at 4.3. For an objection to be considered by the Court, it must include 9 the following: (i) a reference at the beginning to the title of the Action, i.e., , Veda 10 Woodard et al. v. Lee Labrada, et al.; (ii) the objector's full name, address, and 11 telephone number (and the objector's lawyer's name, address and telephone 12 number if objecting through counsel); (iii) a statement of the objector's 13 membership in the Settlement Class, including a verification under oath as to the 14 date and location of their purchase of Class Products and/or a Proof of Purchase 15 reflecting such purchase and any other information required by the Claim Form; 16 (iv) a written statement of all grounds for the Objection, accompanied by any legal 17 support for such objection; (v) copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents 18 upon which the Objection is based; (vi) a list of all persons who will be called to 19 testify in support of the Objection; (vii) a statement of whether the objector intends 20 to appear at the Settlement Hearing (Note, if the objector intends to appear at the 21 Settlement Hearing through counsel, the objection must also state the identity of all 22 attorneys representing the objector who will appear at the Settlement Hearing); 23 (viii) a list of the exhibits the objector may offer during the fairness hearing, along 24 with copies of such exhibits; and (ix) the objector's signature. Agreement at ¶ 25 4.5(b).

26 In addition, the Objector must include the following with his or her 27 objection: (i) the identity of all counsel who represent the Objector, if any, 28 including former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any

1 reason related to the objection; (ii) a detailed list of any other objections submitted 2 by the Objector, or Objector’s counsel on his or her behalf, to any class actions 3 submitted in any court, whether state or federal, in the United States within the 4 previous five (5) years. Agreement at ¶ 4.5(b).

5 F. Release of Claims

6 In exchange for the Settlement consideration, Plaintiffs and each Settlement 7 Class Member, and each of their heirs, guardians, executors, parents, 8 administrators, representatives, agents, attorneys, insurers, partners, successors, 9 predecessors-in-interest, and assigns, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of 10 the Final Approval Order shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, 11 relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims against the Released Persons.
12 Agreement, at ¶ 7.1. The Released Claims are defined in paragraph 2.1(HH) of the 13 Agreement and the Released Persons are defined in paragraph 2.1(II) of the 14 Agreement. The release is narrowly tailored to include only the Media Defendants 15 and their related entities, as further described in the agreement. Agreement at ¶ 16 2.1(II). The release specifically excludes the Non-Settling Defendants and will not 17 preclude the Class’s ability to pursue claims against other manufacturers and 18 suppliers of garcinia cambogia and green coffee bean extract. Agreement at ¶ 19 2.1(II)

20 G. Class Counsel’s Fees and Expenses and Plaintiffs’ Service Awards

21 The Media Defendants have agreed not to oppose Class Counsel’s request 22 for an award of attorneys’ fees and reasonable, actual out-of-pocket expenses of up 23 to 30% of the Settlement Fund, subject to this Court’s approval. Agreement ¶ 8.1.
24 In the event that the Court manifests a specific concern as to requested Attorneys’ 25 Fees as serving as a primary basis to deny approval of the proposed Settlement, the 26 Media Defendants may submit comment and/or potential objection to the fee 27 request, but only after good faith meet and confer with Class Counsel as to the 28 Media Defendants’ specific basis for comment or objection to the fee request.

1 Agreement ¶ 8.1. The Media Defendants have also agreed not to oppose an 2 application for a Service Award for Plaintiffs Woodard and Morrison up to 3 $5,000.00 and an application for a Service Award for Plaintiff Rizzo-Marino up to 4 $7,500.00. Agreement, at ¶ 8.3. Subject to this Court’s approval, Class Counsel
5 will file a Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Expenses, and Service Awards at least 60 6 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing date.

7 IV. LEGAL STANDARD FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

8 Approval of class action settlements involves a two-step process. First, the 9 Court must make a preliminary determination whether the proposed settlement 10 appears to be fair and is “within the range of possible approval.” In re Syncor
11 ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 1095, 1100 (9th Cir. 2008); In re Tableware Antitrust 12 Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). If so, notice can be sent to 13 class members and the Court can schedule a final approval hearing. See Manual for 14 Complex Litigation, § 21.312 at 293-96 (4th ed. 2004) (hereinafter “Manual”).

15 The purpose of a preliminary approval hearing is to ascertain whether to 16 send out notice to putative class members and proceed with a fairness hearing. See 17 In re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d at 1079. Notice should be 18 disseminated where “the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, 19 informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not 20 improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the 21 class, and falls within the range of possible approval.” Id. Preliminary approval 22 does not require an answer to the ultimate question of whether the proposed 23 settlement is fair and adequate, for that determination occurs only after notice of 24 the settlement has been given to the members of the settlement class. Id. (finding 25 that “[t]he question currently before the court is whether this settlement should be 26 preliminarily approved” for the purposes of notifying the putative class members 27 of the proposed settlement and proceeding with a fairness hearing, which requires 28

1 the court to consider whether the settlement appears to be fair and “falls within the 2 range of possible approval”).

3 While the district court has discretion regarding the approval of a proposed 4 settlement, it should give “proper deference to the private consensual decision of 5 the parties.” Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1027 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, 6 the negotiations were conducted at arm’s length, were non-collusive and were 7 well-informed, with an assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims 8 on both sides, were conducted between counsel with decades of class action 9 experience, and utilized at the appropriate time the assistance of a well-respected 10 mediator. Under such circumstances, the Court is entitled to rely upon the opinions 11 and assessments of counsel that the settlement is fair and reasonable. Boyd v.
12 Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 622-23 (N.D. Cal. 1979).

13 Beyond the public policy favoring settlements, the principal consideration in 14 evaluating the fairness and adequacy of a proposed settlement is the likelihood of 15 recovery balanced against the benefits of settlement. “Basic to this process in every 16 instance, of course, is the need to compare the terms of the compromise with the 17 likely rewards of litigation.” Protective Committee for Indep. Stockholders of TMT 18 Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-25 (1968). That said, “the 19 court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a private consensual agreement negotiated 20 between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a 21 reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching 22 by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a 23 whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Officers for Justice v.
24 Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982).

25 V. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT WARRANTS PRELIMINARY
26 APPROVAL

27 Rule 23(e)(2) provides that “the court may approve [a proposed class action 28 settlement] only after a hearing and on finding that it is fair, reasonable, and

1 adequate.” When making this determination, the Ninth Circuit has instructed 2 district courts to balance several factors: (1) the strength of plaintiffs’ case; (2) the 3 risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of 4 maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (4) the amount offered in 5 settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; 6 and (6) the experience and views of counsel. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026;⁶ Churchill 7 Vill., L.L.C. v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004). Here, the balance of 8 these factors readily establishes that the Settlement should be preliminarily 9 approved.

10 A. Strength of Plaintiffs’ Case

11 In determining the likelihood of a plaintiff’s success on the merits of a class 12 action, “the district court’s determination is nothing more than an amalgam of 13 delicate balancing, gross approximations and rough justice.” Officers for Justice, 14 688 F.2d at 625 (internal quotations omitted). The court may “presume that 15 through negotiation, the Parties, counsel, and mediator arrived at a reasonable 16 range of settlement by considering Plaintiff’s likelihood of recovery.” Garner v.
17 State Farm. Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., No. CV 08 1365 CW (EMC), 2010 WL 1687832, 18 at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 22, 2010) (citing Rodriguez v. West Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 19 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009)). Here, the settlement negotiations were hard-fought, 20 requiring multiple mediation sessions over several months, with both Parties and 21 their counsel thoroughly familiar with the applicable facts, legal theories, and 22 defenses on both sides. See Marron Decl., ¶¶ 12-16; Cohelan Decl., ¶¶ 16-18.
23 Plaintiffs believe that the Settlement is an outstanding result considering the issues 24 addressed below.

26 _____
27 ⁶ In Hanlon, the Ninth Circuit also instructed district courts to consider “the 28 reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026. This consideration is more germane to final approval, and will be addressed at the appropriate time.

1 Although Plaintiffs believe that proving the Media Defendants' liability 2 would be possible here, there is no guarantee that a jury would agree. Even if 3 Plaintiffs were able to prove that The Media Defendants received compensation for 4 mentioning the garcinia cambogia and green coffee bean products on The Dr. Oz 5 Show, Plaintiffs would still have to prove that the products are ineffective for 6 weight loss and that Dr. Oz made misleading statements about the products. This 7 inquiry would like devolve into an uncertain "battle of experts." Moreover, 8 Plaintiffs would face a strong hurdle at class certification and summary judgment 9 to establish damages against the Media Defendants. The Media Defendants 10 vigorously deny Plaintiffs' allegations and assert that neither Plaintiffs nor the 11 Class suffered any harm or damages. In addition, Defendants would no doubt 12 present a vigorous defense at trial, and there is no assurance that the Class would 13 prevail – or even if they did, that they would be able to obtain an award of 14 damages significantly higher than achieved here absent such risks. Marron Decl., ¶ 15 16; Cohelan Decl., ¶ 18. Thus, in the eyes of Class Counsel, the proposed 16 Settlement provides the Class with an outstanding opportunity to obtain significant 17 relief at this stage in the litigation. The Settlement also abrogates the risks that 18 might prevent them from obtaining any relief. Marron Decl., ¶¶ 16, 19; Cohelan 19 Decl., ¶ 18.

20 B. The Amount Offered in the Settlement

21 As discussed above, it would be difficult for Plaintiffs to establish classwide 22 damages against the Media Defendants. Here, Plaintiffs' counsel has determined 23 that the total damages in this action are approximately $31,000,000. Marron Decl., 24 ¶ 17. The Media Defendants have agreed to settle this matter for $5,250,000, which 25 constitutes approximately 17% of the total potential recovery. Marron Decl., ¶ 17.
26 This amount is well within the range of reason. See, e.g., Stovall-Gusman v. W.W.
27 Granger, Inc., No. 13-cv-02540-HSG, 2015 WL 3776765, at *4 (N.D. Cal. June 28 17, 2015) (granting final approval of a net settlement amount representing 7.3 % of

1 the plaintiffs’ potential recovery at trial); Balderas v. Massage Envy Franchising,
2 LLC, No. 12-cv-06327NC, 2014 WL 3610945, at *5 (N.D. Cal. July 21, 2014) 3 (granting preliminary approval of a net settlement amount representing 5 % of the 4 projected maximum recovery at trial); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., No. SACV
5 12-02161-DOC (RNBx), 2014 WL 360196, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 31, 2014)
6 (finding a settlement worth 9.1 % of the total value of the action “within the range 7 of reasonableness”); Downey Surgical Clinic, Inc. v. Optuminsight, Inc., No.
8 CV09-5457PSG (JCx), 2016 WL 5938722 at *5 (C.D. Cal. May 16, 2016)
9 (granting final approval where recovery was as low as 3.21 % of potential recovery 10 at trial).

11 The settlement amount is also reasonable because this is a non-reversionary 12 settlement. See McGrath v. Wyndham Resort Dev. Corp., No. 15CV1631 JM 13 (KSC), 2018 WL 637858, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Jan. 30, 2018) (finding a non-14 reversionary settlement fund to be “fair, reasonable, and adequate.”). If the 15 Settlement Fund is not exhausted, then the amount each claimant will receive will 16 increase pro rata. Moreover, the release in the Settlement Agreement is narrowly 17 tailored. Class Members will not be precluded from pursuing claims against the 18 Labrada Defendants, the Supplier Defendants, or against any other manufacturer of 19 garcinia cambogia and/or green coffee bean extract. Therefore, preliminary 20 approval is warranted.

21 C. Risk of Continuing Litigation and Maintaining Class Action Status

22 As referenced above, proceeding in this litigation in the absence of 23 settlement poses various risks such as failing to certify a class, having summary 24 judgment granted against Plaintiffs, or losing at trial. Such considerations have 25 been found to weigh heavily in favor of settlement. See Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 26 966; Curtis-Bauer v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc., No. C 06-3903 TEH, 2008 WL 27 4667090, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 22, 2008) (“Settlement avoids the complexity, 28 delay, risk and expense of continuing with the litigation and will produce a prompt,

1 certain, and substantial recovery for the Plaintiff class.”). Even if Plaintiffs are able 2 to certify a class, there is also a risk that the Court could later decertify the class
3 action. See In re Netflix Privacy Litig., No. 5:11-cv-00379 EJD, 2013 WL 4 1120801, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 18, 2013) (“The notion that a district court could 5 decertify a class at any time is one that weighs in favor of settlement.”) (internal 6 citations omitted). The Settlement eliminates these risks by ensuring Class 7 Members a recovery that is “certain and immediate, eliminating the risk that class 8 members would be left without any recovery ... at all.” Fulford v. Logitech, Inc., 9 No. 08-cv-02041 MNC, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29042, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 5, 10 2010). Therefore, preliminary approval should be granted.

11 D. The Extent of Discovery and Status of Proceedings

12 Under this factor, courts evaluate whether class counsel had sufficient 13 information to make an informed decision about the merits of the case. See In re 14 Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000). Here, the parties to 15 this litigation have produced approximately 30,000 pages of documents. Marron 16 Decl., ¶ 3. Many of these documents were produced after the Court’s rulings on 17 Plaintiffs’ Motion to Compel the Media Defendants’ discovery responses. (Dkt.
18 Nos. 147 & 177). Between the Parties, approximately 20 sets of formal written 19 discovery were propounded and responded to and the Parties met and conferred 20 extensively regarding discovery responses and document productions. Marron 21 Decl., ¶ 3. Plaintiffs also served approximately twelve Non-Party subpoenas to 22 produce documents to gather further information about the Products, sales and 23 potential monetary gain by the Media Defendants. Marron Decl., ¶ 4.

24 The Parties have also taken several depositions in this action. Defendants 25 have taken the depositions of each of the three named Plaintiffs. Marron Decl., ¶ 26 10. On August 10, 2017, Plaintiffs took the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of Defendant 27 Zoco Productions, LLC. Marron Decl., ¶ 5. On August 11, 2017, Plaintiffs took the 28 deposition of Amy Chiaro, an executive producer of The Dr. Oz Show. Marron

1 Decl., ¶ 6. On September 15, 2017, Plaintiffs took the deposition of Mindy 2 Borman, a former executive producer of The Dr. Oz Show. Marron Decl., ¶ 7. On 3 February 2, 2018, Plaintiffs took the deposition of Faith Rosello, the rights and 4 clearances supervisor of The Dr. Oz Show. Marron Decl., ¶ 8. In addition to these 5 depositions, Plaintiffs have also taken the Rule 30(b)(6) depositions of Defendants 6 Naturex and Interhealth. Marron Decl., ¶ 9. Plaintiffs have also deposed Defendant 7 Lee Labrada. Marron Decl., ¶ 9. These depositions have allowed the Parties to 8 sufficiently evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their respective cases. Marron 9 Decl., ¶ 9. The Settlement is thus the result of fully-informed negotiations.

10 E. Experience and Views of Counsel

11 “The recommendations of plaintiffs’ counsel should be given a presumption 12 of reasonableness.” In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1043 13 (N.D. Cal. 2008). Deference to Class Counsel’s evaluation of the Settlement is 14 appropriate because “[p]arties represented by competent counsel are better 15 positioned than courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each party’s 16 expected outcome in litigation.” Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 967. Here, the Settlement 17 was negotiated by counsel with extensive experience in consumer class action 18 litigation. See Marron Decl., ¶¶ 20-38 & Ex. 3 (firm resume of Law Offices of 19 Ronald A. Marron); Cohelan Decl., ¶ 3 & Ex. A (firm resume of Cohelan, Khoury, 20 & Singer). Based on their experience, Class Counsel concluded that the Settlement 21 provides exceptional results for the class while sparing the class from the 22 uncertainties of continued and protracted litigation.

23 For all the foregoing reasons, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, 24 and should be preliminarily approved.

25 VI. THIS COURT SHOULD PROVISIONALLY CERTIFY THE CLASS 26 AND ENTER THE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

27 A. The Proposed Settlement Class Should be Certified

28 The Ninth Circuit has recognized that certifying a settlement class to resolve

1 consumer lawsuits is a common occurrence. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019. When 2 presented with a proposed settlement, a court must first determine whether the 3 proposed settlement class satisfies the requirements for class certification under 4 Rule 23. In assessing those class certification requirements, a court may properly 5 consider that there will be no trial. Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 6 620 (1997) (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a 7 district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable 8 management problems . . . for the proposal is that there be no trial.”). For the 9 reasons below, the Class meets the requirements of Rule 23(a) and (b).

10 1. *The Class Satisfies Rule 23(a)

11 a. Numerosity

12 Rule 23(a)(1) requires that “the class is so numerous that joinder of all 13 members is impracticable.” See Rule 23(a)(1). “As a general matter, courts have 14 found that numerosity is satisfied when class size exceeds 40 members, but not 15 satisfied when membership dips below 21.” Slaven v. BP Am., Inc., 190 F.R.D.
16 649, 654 (C.D. Cal. 2000). Here, the proposed Class is comprised of thousands of 17 consumers who purchased the Class Products – a number that obviously satisfies 18 the numerosity requirement. Accordingly, the proposed Class is so numerous that 19 joinder of their claims is impracticable.

20 b. Commonality

21 Rule 23(a)(2) requires the existence of “questions of law or fact common to 22 the class.” See Rule 23(a)(2). Commonality is established if plaintiffs and class 23 members’ claims “depend on a common contention,” “capable of class-wide 24 resolution ... [meaning] that determination of its truth or falsity will resolve an 25 issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke.” Wal-
26 Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 564 U.S. 338, 350 (2011). Because the commonality 27 requirement may be satisfied by a single common issue, it is easily met. 1H.
28 Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions § 3.10, at 3-50 (1992).

1 There are ample issues of both law and fact here that are common to the 2 members of the Class. All of the Class Members’ claims arise from a common 3 nucleus of facts and are based on the same legal theories. Plaintiffs allege that the 4 Defendants misrepresented the weight-loss benefits of garcinia cambogia and 5 green coffee bean extract on episodes of The Dr. Oz Show. These alleged 6 misrepresentations were made in a uniform manner to each of the class members.
7 Accordingly, commonality is satisfied by the existence of these common factual
8 issues. See Arnold v. United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., 158 F.R.D. 439, 448 9 (N.D. Cal. 1994) (commonality requirement met by “the alleged existence of 10 common discriminatory practices”).

11 Second, Plaintiffs’ claims are brought under legal theories common to the 12 Class as a whole. Alleging a common legal theory alone is enough to establish 13 commonality. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019 (“All questions of fact and law need 14 not be common to satisfy the rule. The existence of shared legal issues with 15 divergent factual predicates is sufficient, as is a common core of salient facts 16 coupled with disparate legal remedies within the class.”). Here, all of the legal 17 theories asserted by Plaintiffs are common to all Class Members. Given that there 18 are virtually no issues of law which affect only individual members of the Class, 19 common issues of law clearly predominate over individual ones. Thus, 20 commonality is satisfied.

21 c. Typicality

22 Rule 23(a)(3) requires that the claims of the representative plaintiffs be 23 “typical of the claims ... of the class.” See Rule 23(a)(3). “Under the rule’s 24 permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are reasonably 25 coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially 26 identical.” See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. In short, to meet the typicality 27 requirement, the representative plaintiffs simply must demonstrate that the 28

1 members of the settlement class have the same or similar grievances. Gen. Tel. Co.
2 of the Sw. v. Falcon, 457 U.S. 147, 161 (1982).

3 The claims of the named Plaintiffs are typical of those of the Class. Like 4 those of the Class, their claims arise out of the purchase of garcinia cambogia and 5 green coffee bean extract products after relying on alleged representations of the 6 Media Defendants. The named Plaintiffs have precisely the same claims as the 7 Class, and must satisfy the same elements of each of their claims, as must other 8 Class Members. Supported by the same legal theories, the named Plaintiffs and all 9 Class Members share claims based on the same alleged course of conduct. The 10 named Plaintiffs and all Class Members have been injured in the same manner by 11 this conduct. Therefore, Plaintiffs satisfy the typicality requirement.

12 d. Adequacy

13 The final requirement of Rule 23(a) is set forth in subsection (a)(4) which 14 requires that the representative parties “fairly and adequately protect the interests 15 of the class.” See Rule 23(a)(4). A plaintiff will adequately represent the class 16 where: (1) plaintiffs and their counsel do not have conflicts of interests with other 17 class members; and (2) where plaintiffs and their counsel prosecute the action 18 vigorously on behalf of the class. See Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 957 (9th 19 Cir. 2003). Moreover, adequacy is presumed where a fair settlement was 20 negotiated at arm’s length. Newberg on Class Actions, supra, §11.28, at 11-59.

21 Class Counsel have vigorously and competently pursued the Class 22 Members’ claims. The arm’s-length settlement negotiations that took place and the 23 investigation they undertook demonstrate that Class Counsel adequately represent 24 the Class. Moreover, the named Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have no conflicts of 25 interests with the Class. Rather, the named Plaintiffs, like each absent Class 26 Member, have a strong interest in proving the Media Defendants’ common course 27 of conduct, and obtaining redress. In pursuing this litigation, Class Counsel, as well 28 as the named Plaintiffs, have advanced and will continue to advance and fully

1 protect the common interests of all members of the Class. Class Counsel have 2 extensive experience and expertise in prosecuting complex class actions. Class 3 Counsel are active practitioners who are highly experienced in class action and 4 consumer fraud litigation. See Marron Decl., ¶¶ 20-38; Cohelan Decl., ¶¶ 2-9.
5 Accordingly, Rule 23(a)(4) is satisfied.

6 2. The Class Satisfies Rule 23(b)(3)

7 In addition to meeting the prerequisites of Rule 23(a), Plaintiffs must also 8 meet one of the three requirements of Rule 23(b) to certify the proposed class. See 9 Zinser v. Accufix Research Inst., Inc., 253 F.3d 1180, 1186 (9th Cir. 2001). Under 10 Rule 23(b)(3), a class action may be maintained if “the court finds that the 11 questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any 12 questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to 13 other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” See 14 Rule 23(b)(3). Certification under Rule 23(b)(3) is appropriate and encouraged 15 “whenever the actual interests of the parties can be served best by settling their 16 differences in a single action.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022.

17 a. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate

18 The proposed Class is well-suited for certification under Rule 23(b)(3) 19 because questions common to the Class Members predominate over questions 20 affecting only individual Class Members. Predominance exists “[w]hen common 21 questions present a significant aspect of the case and they can be resolved for all 22 members of the class in a single adjudication.” Id. As the U.S. Supreme Court has 23 explained, when addressing the propriety of certification of a settlement class, 24 courts take into account the fact that a trial will be unnecessary and that 25 manageability, therefore, is not an issue. Amchem, 521 U.S. at 619-620.

26 In this case, common questions of law and fact exist and predominate over 27 any individual questions, including in addition to whether this settlement is 28 reasonable (see Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026-27), inter alia: (1) whether the Media

1 Defendants’ representations regarding garcinia cambogia and green coffee bean 2 extract were false and misleading or reasonably likely to deceive consumers; (2)
3 whether the Media Defendants violated the CLRA, UCL, FAL and NY GBL §§
4 349-350; (3.) whether the Media Defendants had defrauded Plaintiff and the Class
5 Members; and (4.) whether the Class has been injured by the wrongs complained 6 of, and if so, whether Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to damages, injunctive 7 and/or other equitable relief, including restitution or disgorgement, and if so, the 8 nature and amount of such relief. Thus, predominance is satisfied.

9 b. A Class Action Is the Superior Mechanism for Adjudicating
10 this Dispute

11 The class mechanism is superior to other available means for the fair and 12 efficient adjudication of the claims of the Class Members. Each individual Class 13 Member may lack the resources to undergo the burden and expense of individual 14 prosecution of the complex and extensive litigation necessary to establish 15 Defendants’ liability. Individualized litigation increases the delay and expense to 16 all parties and multiplies the burden on the judicial system presented by the 17 complex legal and factual issues of this case. Individualized litigation also presents 18 a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In contrast, the class action 19 device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of 20 single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single 21 court.

22 Moreover, since this action will now settle, the Court need not consider 23 issues of manageability relating to trial. See Amchem, 521 U.S. at 620
24 (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a district court 25 need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable management 26 problems, see Fed. Rule Civ. Proc. 23(b)(3)(D), for the proposal is that there be no 27 trial.”). Accordingly, common questions predominate and a class action is the 28 superior method of adjudicating this controversy.

1 VII. THE PROPOSED NOTICE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES ADEQUATE
2 NOTICE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

3 Once preliminary approval of a class action settlement is granted, notice 4 must be directed to class members. For class actions certified under Rule 23(b)(3), 5 “the court must direct to class members the best notice that is practicable under the 6 circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified 7 through reasonable effort.” Rule 23(c)(2)(B). In addition, Rule 23(e)(1) applies to 8 any class settlement and requires the Court to “direct notice in a reasonable manner 9 to all class members who would be bound by the proposal.” Rule 23(e)(1).

10 When a court is presented with class notice pursuant to a settlement, both the 11 class certification notice and notice of settlement may be combined in the same 12 notice. Manual, § 21.633 at 321-22 (“For economy, the notice under Rule 23(c)(2) 13 and the Rule 23(e) notice are sometimes combined.”). This notice allows Class 14 Members to decide whether to opt out of or participate in the class and/or to object 15 to the Settlement and argue against final approval by the Court. Id.

16 The Notices accurately inform Class Members of the salient terms of the 17 Settlement, the Class to be certified, the final approval hearing and the rights of all 18 parties, including the rights to file objections and to opt out of the class. The 19 Parties in this case have created and agreed to perform the following forms of 20 notice, which will satisfy both the substantive and manner of distribution 21 requirements of Rule 23 and due process. See Exhibits A, B, & D to Settlement 22 Agreement.

23 SETTLEMENT WEBSITE: The parties will post a copy of the Long 24 Form Notice (Ex. A) on a website to be maintained by the 25 Administrator, which will additionally contain the settlement 26 documents, an online claim form, a list of important dates, and any 27 other information to which the parties may agree. The website shall 28 also contain a Settlement Email Address and Settlement Telephone Number, where Class Members can submit questions and receive further information and assistance. Peak Decl., ¶ 22.

1 INTERNET AD CAMPAIGN: The Administrator will implement an 2 Internet ad campaign via desktop and mobile devices through Google
3 Display Network (GDN) and the social site Facebook and Yahoo! Ad
4 network. This internet ad campaign is designed to generate 204.5
5 impressions targeting potential class members. Peak Decl., ¶¶ 16-19.

6 PUBLICATION NOTICE: The Administrator will also publish 7 notice in Glamour Magazine, Star Magazine, In Touch Magazine and 8 the Los Angeles Daily News (four consecutive times to satisfy CLRA 9 notice requirements). Peak Decl., ¶¶ 12-15, 20.

10 This proposed notice program provides a fair opportunity for Class Members 11 to obtain full disclosure of the conditions of the Settlement and to make an 12 informed decision regarding the Settlement. This notice program is designed to 13 reach at least 70 percent of the Class Members. See Peak Decl., ¶ 26. Thus, the 14 notices and notice procedures amply satisfy the requirements of due process.

15 VIII. PROPOSED SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

16 In connection with Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, the Court should 17 also set a date and time for the Final Approval Hearing. Other deadlines in the 18 Settlement approval process, including the deadlines for requesting exclusion from 19 the Settlement Class or objecting to the Settlement, will be determined based on 20 the date of the Final Approval Hearing or the date on which the Preliminary 21 Approval Order is entered. The Parties respectfully propose the following 22 schedule:

EVENT	DEADLINE
Deadline for publishing Notice	10 days after the Court’s Order Granting Preliminary Approval.
Filing of papers in support of Final Approval and Class Counsel’s Application for Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses	60 days before the date of the Final Approval Hearing.

1 For filing an objection with the Court, 2 or submitting a Request for Exclusion 3 to the Settlement Administrator	30 days before the date of the Final Approval Hearing
4 Filing of response to objections	10 days before the date of the Final Approval Hearing.
5 Final Approval Hearing	150 days after date of Order Granting Preliminary Approval.
6 Deadline for submitting claims forms	10 days after the date of the Final Approval Hearing

10 IX. CONCLUSION

11 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs and the Media Defendants respectfully 12 request that the Court grant preliminary approval, provisionally certify the Class, 13 approve the proposed notice plan, and enter the Proposed Preliminary Approval 14 Order.
