

Comments: Forex isn't something new. Yet, this guys are charging $185 dollars/month just for "training" that you can easily get it for free on Youtube. It's a complete ripoff.

I got invited to a meeting and when I asked where are the headquarters, they literally told me that they don't have an actual office. That the owner runs the company remotely from his hotel room in Las Vegas. Also, in their live presentations, they say that CEO Chris Terry has managed to earn $85 million dollars and that he's acclaimed by Wall Street for his priceless contribution. Yet, I couldn't find any legit references on Google. and boy, I did my research. They tell prospects that it's a ground-floor opportunity because for the first time ever, you can make money off the product and not by recruiting. Which it's not true at all. Most of their reps reinforce this by making income claims on social media by saying things like: "See, it's very easy to make money with IML because you don't have to recruit" and people buy into the idea because the hope being sold it's easy money. One of those distributors is Austin Godsey. Top leader and rank his rank is Chairman 50. Oh, by the way. It's impossible to hit that rank just "trading" Forex. you must recruit. Yet, they are selling people the fake dream that the big bucks come from trading, not recruiting. Find it here:

https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209506046229420&id=1274370766 And here: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209070181613077&id=1274370766 You can even find him here making one bold income claim: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209687078395111&id=1274370766 One of Austin's recent

Facebook posts was recognizing someone he personally enrolled. His rep's name is: Fernando Madero Rios. (You can find both of them on Facebook)

Austin said that he's so proud of Fernando because before IML he was broke and homeless. And after 12 months, he was making $2.5 million mexican peso per year. (now THOSE are some bold claims with no income disclosure) Here's the actual post: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209894443459108&id=1274370766 Some of Fernando's post making the same bold claim: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10158133229015311&id=637935310 Here are more: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209968180862497&id=1274370766 And more: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209739195057995&id=1274370766 And more:

https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=10209589808363421&id=1274370766 If you research most IML reps, they are pretty much doing the exact same thing Vemma distributors did with social media. "Leading with hype" They also started a movement just like Vemma's YPR aka Young People Revolution. Called GV aka Global Visionariez. Just look them up on Facebook and YouTube. Little did I know, Alex Morton, former Vemma Royal Ambassador, is the Vice President Of Sales of iMarketsLive. This company are misleading to the public and it's likely to be a scam.

Complaint disposition provided?: