alexmortonmindset Our company has added 30,000 new customers in the past 60 days. That's right around 500 new customers every 24 hours. We're experiencing amazing growth all over the world & people's lives are being impacted in a phenomenal way. In times of growth, you turn up the work ethic and multiply your efforts and results.

People are hungry for something different, they're sick and tired of the same non sense that didn't work for their grandparents or parents. People want knowledge and need to learn a skill set that can pay them for the rest of their lives. The old ways of thinking and the old road to success are gone. You can no longer rely on a "job" or place your destiny in the hands of others.

We must control our own finances, economy, & take responsibility for our lives.

We are in a new world, a new economy, with endless opportunities all around us. Don't listen to the negative propaganda on CNN or listen to people's complaints and excuses. We are living in the greatest time in human history where anyone from anywhere can become a success story.

Excited to be on tour for the entire month of May all over North America helping people wake up to their endless potential & share what I believe to be the greatest opportunity our profession
