Product description

Brain Curcumins is BrainMD's high-quality, concentrated curcumin supplement. Curcumin and other curcuminoids are the best-proven beneficial substances from turmeric root. Turmeric has thousands of years of history as a medicinal herb, but just within the past few decades, modern science has discovered the spectacular benefits of its curcumin content. Curcumins need to be properly absorbed when taken by mouth. The LONGVIDA® Optimized Curcumin Extract is clinically proven for better oral absorption and has shown brain benefits in a double-blind clinical trial.

Curcumin preparations vary widely in their chemical makeup, so the BrainMD team needed a preparation with impressive brain benefits. The LONGVIDA curcumin is used for supporting working memory AND calmness. you're trying to support your memory while working your brain in overdrive, and could benefit from staying calm to avoid panic while you're pushing yourself mentally, give Brain Curcumins a try!
