Sleep Aid May Help

December 19, 2018

Verified Purchase

I use the product to help me overcome my insomnia, I use an increased dosage over the recommended 1 capsule. The results seem very positive! I highly recommend, also contributes to mental clarity and well being.

my choice

January 15, 2019

Verified Purchase

This was my first Bacopa supp. I recently purchased from another brand and noticed the positive effects diminishing. Upon investigation, I discovered the new brand contained only 250mg 24% Bacopa saponins whereas the brand here (naturebell) contains 375mg 50% Bacosides. Just something to consider. Those more sensitive to sleepiness or other side effects may want to try the less potent brands. Personally, the only side effect I get is sleepiness but, only once I start taking more than one per 12 hours.

Definite improvement in cognitive function, memory retention, processing complex info. Faster flow of thoughts. I can't say enough good things about it, after reading the benefits if it, I started my personal first trial. So far it seems to improve my thinking clear mind and better memory.

Good supplement

November 19, 2018

Verified Purchase

Bacopa is also known to be used as a sleep aide and it definitely knocks me out cold so I figured that since it stays true to one of the uses it's good for which is rest, that it will definitely help me with memory , anxiety and depression. This is a wonderful supplement and I would suggest it to anyone having acquired mild to moderate cognitive or memory difficulties.

Excellent product

October 25, 2018

Verified Purchase

This really is a great product. I've tried many things for anxiety and depression with either didn't work or have nasty side effects. Bacopa definitely works, it improves my mood in a very subtle and stable way with no real side effects. I will be re ordering this product for sure.

At the age of 65, I forgot a few things and its really hard to recall. After taking bacopa for 1 month, it helped me immensely with my memory and thought process. This is very good way to keep sharp and bright, I will continue order it.

Excellent

November 1, 2018

I work out late at night so I'm not a fan of strong caffeine tablets, this on the other hand combined with some ginkgo and green tea gives me the energy boost I need to train, but doesn't keep me at night.

I found this bacopa by accident when surfing on internet and I can't believe how good it works for me. I feel the difference especially in my speech and memory.
