I NEVER Leave Reviews, but I HAD to

July 27, 2018

Verified Purchase

I HAD to leave this review for the people who are struggling with the ability to focus/remain calm in certain situations that require you to multitask. ALSO to those mothers who are like me that ALWAYS seem to have a hard time focusing on grocery shopping while lugging around two kids. These. Pills. WORK.

I saw a HUGE improvement just by taking one the first day. The bottle says you can take two but I find that just one is enough for me. Immediately, once the 15 minutes passed, I started to have a clearer mind. By about 30 minutes, I was SET.

I WILL be buying these again. At 60 capsules, taking one a day will last two months. They are AMAZING.

A great buy!

July 18, 2017

As a 10 years of being software engineer myself, working long hours not knowing hours and hours passing by, day after day is not really new to me. It was ok, when I was young and energetic, but when approaching to 40's you tend to forget things. I gave this supplement a try and I had nothing but great, boosting memories back. I'm able to focus better and quicker. I love it!

Has not seemed to do anything, at least for me.

March 16, 2018

I have had this awhile, I honestly do not think I noticed any difference in my focus, memory, clarity, or mood.

Not sure why but this shows as a hidden review because of some "sensitivity" filter?

Shockingly, these actually work!!!!

October 14, 2017

Verified Purchase

I never really thought this would work. I buy supplements every once in a while and I either get headaches from them, stomachaches, or notice no difference. I NOTICED A BIG difference with these. I feel like my mood is better, I have more energy (so take earlier rather than later) and my appetite has decreased (which is awesome). I will definitely be buying again!!!

Similar to others, better value.

I've tried at least 3 other products similar to this, all with hardly noticeable differences. If you look at the ingredients and you will see most of these types of pills have marginally different blends of the same compounds. I would put this one as my favorite for the simply because there are 60 pills as apposed to most others that only offer 30 and it has the same effect of making you more cognizant.

Five Stars

July 13, 2018

Verified Purchase

I absolutely love this product. I've noticed lately that towards the middle of the afternoon I started feeling a bit tired and sleepy and needed a cup of coffee or two to come back to normal. I love the focusing, calming effect of this supplement. The concentration and clarity improvement was noticed the very next day after I started taking it and I don't feel tired or sleepy anymore in the afternoon. Will definitely buy again.
